

	Pre-approved Names for Street and Road Naming
Name	Significance	Additional Notes	Adopted by Council
Adams	Henry Adams - Conducted a bakery in John Street then later in George Street	Be mindful there is a Adams Peak Road	19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Alcorn	Richard Alcorn, settler, arrived Port Jackson 1803, married Charlotte Gulledge 1808; was overseer to George Lethbridge at Falbrook where he was licensee of the Greyhound Inn 1831-1837. After an attack by aborigines he moved to Jerry's Plains where he built and was licensee of the Queen Victoria Inn.		Council Minute No 502/2003
Archinal	Henry Archinal, early settler of the Goorangoola district, born in Germany 1845. Arrived in Australia in 1862, married 1865. Lived at Archdale, Goorangoola. Descendants remained in the area.		8/12/2008
Asimus	John Frederick Asimus Settled at Goorangoola 1873-1921, retired to Dunolly		Council Minute No 502/2003
Atkin	John Atkin - Settled in Singleton 1856. Took over Kingston flour mill with E Horder in 1879		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Ball	James Ball - Settled at Birnanwood 1849, later acquired Glendowner near Jerrys Plains	To be used at the Retreat	Council Minute No 502/2003
Bates	Charles Bates, stockman, born England c1817 arrived convict ship Prince George 1837. Married Frances Chapman 1840. Granted Ticket of Leave at Dungog 1841. Employed by the Scotts at Glendon and later by Mr Trinder at Dulwich where he was accidentally killed in a horse accident. Many descendants remained in the area, particularly the Bulga district.		8/12/2008
Belfrage	George Belfrage - Head teacher of Singleton Grammar School. Died Singleton 15 October 1877		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Brosi	John David Brosi - Historical Significance Settled in Goorangoola 1861 under the Act passed by Sir John Robertson		Council Minute No 502/2003
Bruderlin	Singleton serviceman killed in New Britain (New Guinea) during WW2 15-11-1945. Flight Sergeant Douglas A Bruderlin, son of Mrs Bert Bruderlin, Edward St, apprenticed to Electrical Depot, Singleton Municipal Council. Father served in Darwin.		8/12/2008
Burnage	John Burnage - Lived on McDouall's property at New Fraugh for some years. Died in 1892		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Butchtmann	Brothers Diedrich and Frederick Buchtman, born in Germany, arrived Australia 1870, started a coach works 1872-73. After Frederick's death 1883, Diedrich moved the factory to Elizabeth Street. In 1897 Diedrich invented a new buggy wheel device. He died in 1911 and his son, William Cord Buchtman carried on the business until 1958 - by then he was repairing car axles, springs, hoods and trimmings. Some family members included: (i) Sergeant Eric Douglas Buchtman, RAAF HQ, served in WWII, was Deputy Town Clerk early 1950s. (ii) Lieutenant Jean Buchtman served WWII in the Women's Army Service. (AWAS) 1942-1946.		8/12/2008
Cann	WW2 - died of illness 24.12.43 while prisoner of Japanese, aged 29 yrs Private Malcolm Henry Cann, second son of Mr & Mrs Alf Cann, Macquarie Street. Lived in Singleton until three years before enlisting. Taken prisoner in Thailand by the Japanese; died of illness. Brother, Jack Cann, served in the Pacific.		8/12/2008
Chapman	Robert Chapman - of Burrowell, Howes Valley, one of the earliest settlers of that locality, died at Singleton 1888. William Chapman - joined the staff at H McFaddens coach factory	To be used in Garland Valley only	8/12/2008
Clerihew	William Clerihew - conducted a blacksmithing business in the 60's. Married Mary Joss in Singleton 1847. 1866 appointed assistant assessor of the new municipality.		8/12/2008
Cobb	John Cobb arrived in Sydney in 1823. He received grants at Whittingham of 2000 acres called Rusholm and Minimbah, which were run as sheep stations by a manager - John Cobb lived at Anambah, Maitland. He died in 1840. (The mansion at Minimbah was built by Duncan Forbes Mackay who acquired the estate in 1871.)		8/12/2008
Coghlan	Cornelius Coghlan - teacher of St Patrick's school from 1849, resided in John Street near Imperial Hotel		8/12/2008
Cooke	WW2 Leading Aircraftman Lloyd McDonald Cooke enlisted April 1943, discharged April 1944		8/12/2008
Coughlan	Michael Coughlan - of Wollombi married Miss Kershaw of Singleton 1839 and became a resident of Singleton. Father of T K and Grandfather of G H Coughlan		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Crapp	WWII - killed on operational flight from England 4.3.1943, aged 24 yrs Pilot Officer Errol Clifton Crapp RAAF, son of Rev and Mrs Arthur Crapp, Hunter Street (Methodist Manse) killed in England. Two brothers also enlisted.		8/12/2008
Davies	James John Davies - Manager for Russells's of Ravensworth prior to the purchase of that station by D F MacKay, was one of the first members of the Patrick Plains Benevolent Society in 1842.		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Dawes	Richard Dawes - came to Singleton as a boy with John Howe in the 1820's and it is believed that he was a son of Lieut Richard Dawes who made an attempt to cross the Blue Mountains in 1793, but failed. The subject of this notice received a grant of 100 ac at Kurrajong Heights, which remained in his possession until his death. R J E L and A H Dawes were sons, Mrs M Clark of Kelso, Mrs Chapman of Howes Valley, Mrs Smith of Redbournberry and Miss Dawes of Newington are daughters.		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20

	Pre-approved Names for Street and Road Naming
Name	Significance	Additional Notes	Adopted by Council
Dick	WWII - killed at El Alemein 25.10.1942, age 42 yrs Private William Dick enlisted with Scottish Forces in WWI. Met an Australian lad during WWI encouraged to migrate. Migrated 1924. Worked on farms in Singleton area. Settled at Glennies Creek. Married 1926. Killed October 1942.		8/12/2008
Dines	John Dines - Historical Significance Came to Singleton in 1857 and went into the butchering business where he remained until 1899. Richard Dines - was once owner of Hambledon Hill, where he bred some well know racehorses - Glencoe won the Melbourne Cup in 1868. His occupancy of the estate would be in the 50's.		8/12/2008
Drinan	(i) Thomas Joseph Drinan, born Ireland 1830 arrived Sydney with parents 1841. In 1864 be purchased land in the Branxton area, became a successful vigneron; he also had a butchery and hotel at Branxton while shepherds and stockmen managed his 10,000 acres at Glendonbrook. In the 1890s Thomas and wife, Bridget, built Manresa at Glendonbrook. Thomas died before its completion but his widow and children lived there; 3rd son, Francis Augustus Drinan, married 1906, made Manresa his family home, sharing with brother John Patrick Drinan. The home remained in the Drinan family until 1983. Wahgunyah, Glendonbrook, was also built by members of the Drinan family. (ii) In 1980s Dr John Drinan was appointed Principal of Tocal Agricultural College after holding many important agricultural positions throughout the State.		8/12/2008
Dulling	Thomas Dulling - proprietor of the Caledonian Hotel in the mid 1860's and was the first town clerk of the town being appointed acting clerk at the first meeting of the newly formed Council in 1866.		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Eather	Thomas Eather One of the original settlers of Bulga, and father of late John T Eather and grandfather of or Eather residents of that locality.		8/12/2008
Eaton	John and Mary Eaton granted 100 acres on Cockfighter Creek, Bulga, 1831. Built a two-storey house on Horseshoe Lagoon, Bulga. Moved to Queensland in 1851 and established a sugar cane plantation.		8/12/2008
Echo Hill	Echo Hill is the name of an orchard established in 1979 at Broke. The fruit from this orchard received many awards at the Sydney Royal Easter Show. Peaches and apricots were the most successful varieties.	To be used in Broke only	19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Fawcetts	Fawcetts of Glenridding took up Glenridding somewhere in the forties, and a considerable area is still in the hands of the family. The sons of the original holders were Richard, George, Edward, Thomas A (manager for the estate) and Thorney. Glen Fawcett, son the the late T A is now the only resrepresentative on the estate.		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Foster	William Foster - was the owner of a property near St Clair, but came to Singleton in 1884, and entered into the hotel business in the house known as the White Swan, where he became proprietor of the cattle saleyards. All the public sales of the district were conducted there until 1909 when the Shire Council's yards were opened.		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Gaggin	John Gaggin, arrived 1819 on Captain Bligh married Mary Brabyn whose father had land grant Sydenham, Glennies Creek. Gaggin held the position of Commissioner of Crown Lands for the Districts of Muswellbrook, Merton, Merriwa and Cassilis and was active in projects for the advancement of the district. Mary Gaggin befriended the Aborigines. Gaggin, a gambler, got into financial difficulties. He was queried for his handling of public money. He disappeared. An enquiry in the 1970s showed he had been framed.		8/12/2008
Gerner	WWII - killed in plane crash on non-operational flight 6.2.1945, age 20 yrs. (i) Flight Sergeant Chris Gerner, son of Mr & Mrs C H Gerner, High Street died in England. (ii) Chris' father (Chris Gerner Snr) born in England, a WWI veteran served 4 years with English forces WWI, and 2 years in WWII with Australian 20th Batt Volunteer Defence Force Part-Time; managed a garage & service station in Campbell Street from 1926, purchasing the business in the 1930s, traded until 1972. President of Singleton's RS&SI League from mid-1930s.		8/12/2008
Gett	Peter Gett Snr, German settler arrived 1855, age 21 yrs. Farmed at Goorangoola Creek; was a district spokesperson for improving the road and obtaining a school. Moved to Narrabri late 1890s; died 1908. Peter Gett Jnr, born 1862 had a much admired model farm at Dunolly. He moved to Narrabri early 1905. where younger brother Phillip Gett was licensee of a Narrabri hotel.	To be used at the Retreat	8/12/2008
Greenhalgh	James and Amy Greenhalgh arrived from Derbyshire, UK, in 1877, farming mainly in the Goorangoola and Warkworth districts. Descendants remained in the area.		8/12/2008
Haggart	WWII - died 1.6.1944 from injuries while serving in the Mediterranean, age 28 yrs Leading Aircraftman Donald C Haggart, son of Mr & Mrs J C Haggart late of 'Baroona' now at Kurrajong Heights, served in the Middle East before serving in the Mediterranean area. Died from injuries.	Be mindful there is a Haggartys lane	8/12/2008

	Pre-approved Names for Street and Road Naming
Name	Significance	Additional Notes	Adopted by Council
Hartigan	Historical Significance Dr Robert S Hartigan - was a brother of Mrs McDouall, of New Freugh and it is believed that he practised at Singleton, His remains are interred in the Church of England cemetery.		8/12/2008
Hatherly	Lieutenant L O Hatherly RNR engaged in minesweeping the North and White Seas awarded Croix de Guerre by the French President and Order of St Stanislaus by the Czar of Russia, the highest award given to a foreigner. (He is not listed on any Singleton war lists but had a brother, Mr William Hatherly, in John Street.) His nephew, Oscar (Ock) Burleigh Hatherly - son of William Hatherly, was a well known gunsmith, sports store owner in John Street from the 1930s.		8/12/2008
Hetherington	Rev Irving Hetherington: Singleton's first resident minister. Rev Irving Hetherington, Presbyterian Minister from Scotland, arrived July 1837. Appointed to Patricks Plains September 1837 - first resident minister in the district, ministering to all denominations. Built Singleton's first church; conducted a school in the manse.		8/12/2008
Hope	Thomas Frederick Hope - a member of the firm of Ho and Pettie, storekeepers and a member of the first committee of the Patrick Plains benevolent Society in 1842.		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Hopkins	John Hopkins - a member of one of the early Jerry's Plains families, and son-in-law to G Vigars who carried the mail by pack horse between Jerry's Plains and intervening localities		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Horder	Edward Horder - in conjunction with John Atkin carried on a flour milling business at Kingston's mill after that gentleman retired, a son or Mr Horder is now an Auctioneer at Aberdeen		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Keenahan	John Keenahan born Ireland arrived 1848 farmed at Butterstream, Vere. He died 1895. Memorial window commemorating John Keenahan ordered from France arrived Sydney but sank with the ill-fated SS Maitland May 1898. Window re-ordered and placed in St Patrick's Church, Singleton October 1989. (There are also Kenahan families in Singleton)		8/12/2008
Kendall	WW1 - Cpl H M H Kendall killed France 19.7.1916 (DNA identification 2008) (ii) Pte E D Kendall died of illness, Egypt 19.1.1916 (i) Corporal Hassall Marsden Harding Kendall, a bank clerk at Singleton, killed at Fromelles, France, 19.7.1916, age 21 yrs. (ii) Private Edward Denis Kendall, son of Mrs E M Kendall Broughton Street died of illness 19.1.1916 in Egypt after serving at Gallipoli.		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Laverty	William Laverty - arrived in New South Wales 1850 and up to 1859 followed the trade of a wheelwright. Afterwards went on the land. One son joined the Methodist ministry.		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Laycock	Thomas Laycock, Quartermaster of NSW Corps, arrived in Sydney 1791 with wife Hannah and family. In 1804 Hannah was granted 500 acres (known as King's Grove, Sydney) by Governor King. Hannah Laycock returned to England 1805. When Thomas died in NSW in 1809, Hannah returned to King's Grove, Sydney. When she asked for more land, the Laycock family was given 100 acres at Putty where they established Putty Farm.		8/12/2008
Lloyd	George Lloyd - father of Mr G B Lloyd of Singleton was the proprietor of a hotel near Black Creek in 1842.	Be mindful there is a Lloyd Jones Lane	19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
MacFarlane	Ronald Francis MacFarlane - Served in World War II and arrived in Singleton in 1964. Became president of the Rotary Club in early 1970s and was a prominent volunteer worker at the hospital. Awarded a Paul Harris Fellow Award (Rotary). Awarded an OAM in 1980.	To be used in Singleton only	19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Mackay	In 1875 Duncan Forbes Mackay purchased land originally granted to John Cobb. Using plans originally drawn for William Dangar, Duncan Forbes Mackay built the Dulcalmah Homestead; also purchased Ravensworth which was managed by his relatives. After Mackay's death in 1887 Dulcalmah became known as Minimbah by its new owner.		8/12/2008
Maguire	Michael Maguire - arrived in colony in 1851 and after a short period in charge of a school in Sydney was appointed teacher of a school in Singleton. Maguire's subdivision at the southern end of John St. Built and occupied the Railway View (now Albion) Hotel John - commenced business as a tailor in Singleton in 1857, the first business of its kind in the town. His sons are still resident.		8/12/2008
Mantlent	John Mantlent - an old identity of the district as a dealer in skins and hides. Died in 1924 at the age of 87 years.		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Mather	Adam Mather Snr emigrated from Scotland. After his 1st wife's death, he married Elizabeth Keppie. Their youngest son Alexander Mather and his brother James Mather worked in a cordial factory established in 1877 by their step-father, Harry Pinchin. In 1902, Alex Mather took over management of the cordial factory Alex Mather and Sons Cordial Factory. Adam Mather Jnr (Adam & Elizabeth's 3rd son) was chosen in the NSW cricket team. Alex made glass cordial bottles with an embossed cricket player and bat. The factory closed in 1976. Adam Mather Jnr was licensee of the Club House Hotel from 1898 to 1918.		8/12/2008

	Pre-approved Names for Street and Road Naming
Name	Significance	Additional Notes	Adopted by Council
McAlpin	William McAlpin - one of the earliest settlers of Bulga, of whom it is said that he once rode all the way to Richmond to record his vote at a parliament election. Joseph McAlpin - son of the above followed farming pursuits at Bulga until 1885, when he secured a lease of the Caledonia Hotel. He later returned to Bulga		8/12/2008
McCosker	Bernard McCosker - came to Singleton from Maitland in 1846 and was a resident for 36 years when he moved to Gunnedah Patrick McCosker - came from Maitland with parents, and later ran a butchering business in Singleton; also was licensee of the old hotels at Whittingham and Newington. His widow was proprietress of the Court House Hotel for several years		8/12/2008
McCrae	WWII - died of illness, England 1943 Pilot Officer Frederick Charles (Charles) McCrae enlisted in the RAAF in 1940; left Australia 1941 to serve overseas. Died of illness in England December 1943, aged years. His father, Frederick McCrae, had a photographic business in John Street 1925 to 1948. Frederick McCrae died 1956.		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
McDonald	WWII - served for 3 months Private John (Jack) Linden McDonald No NX54743, born at Merriwa. His father managed Wambo. Enlisted 10.7.1940, discharged 25.10.1940.		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
McFadden	Great Historical/Historical Significance Henry McFadden - settled at Corinda, Lower Belford about 1846 and a few years later was the proprietor of a large coach building and blacksmith business on Maitland Road opposite Townhead. Henry McFadden - son of the above, proprietor of coach factory in George Street, has been an alderman on several occasions and Mayor also. He is said to be the only member of the Northern Agricultural Association now living who was a membmer at the time of the first show.		8/12/2008
McGregor	WWII: killed New Guinea 15.11.1942 Driver Gordon Thomas McGregor, son of Mr Tom McGregor, of Manilla and late of Ravensworth, was employed at Liddell Colliery; served in the Middle East then home on Leave before posting to New Guinea; accidentally killed New Guinea 15.11.1942. Brother, Lance Corporal Merton McGregor also served in Middle East; was discharged 29.3.1946.		8/12/2008
McShane	Bill McShane - Long term resident of Singleton who worked in the men's wear department of the former Singleton Co-op		8/12/2008
Meissner	George Michael Frederick (Fred) Meissner arrived from Germany in 1857. His occupation groom and farmer. He married Anna Roeth 1861 resided in the Glendonbrook area. Descendants have remained in the area.		8/12/2008
Merrick	Roland & Willamina Merrick were beef cattle & turkey farmers at Putty until 1928 when they moved to Bulga and Singleton township	To be used at Putty	19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Metcalf	WWII: killed in New Guinea 23.10.42 Private Ralph W Metcalf was killed in New Guinea 1942; employed by Plashett Pastoral Co; served in the Middle east, then New Guinea.		8/12/2008
Morton	Arthur & Ruby Morton, residents of Putty. Arthur worked for the DMR (RMS) and was in charge of maintaining a section of Putty Road when ever a culvert or part of the road was washed out	To be used at Putty	19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Munzenberger	Phillip Munzenberger arrived from Germany in the 1840s as a farmer. He married Magdalena Brunner in 1861 and lived at Mitchell's Flat. Descendants have remained in the area.		8/12/2008
Nichols	James Nichols - came to Singleton in 1845 and became the licensee of the Tradesman's Arms Hotel in 1875. He later erected the Imperial Hotel and occupied it for some time.		8/12/2008
Ogden	Keith Ogden - Long term resident of Singleton who worked at the local dairy factory		8/12/2008
Onus	Joseph Onus arrived on the convict ship Gatton in 1803 - transported for life for stealing. He received a Conditional Pardon in 1812. In 1825 he was granted 1550 acres on the eastern bank of the Wollombi Brook, Bulga. His sons became extensive landholders in Patrick Plains.		8/12/2008
Osborne	John Wesley Osborne - was in business in Singleton in the early sixties and a son also had a pastry business in John Street in 1881. The last named is now a resident of Evans Head.		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Parr	Joseph Parr - came to Singleton in 1863 to assist in bulding the old Church of England, curatage and school hall now remodelled and made the town his permanent place of abode. Many of the brick buildings in the town were erected by him. His son of the same name is still a resident.		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Perram	WWII: POW accidentally killed 30.7.1944 while in German hands Private George Garvin Perram, son of Mrs E G Perram, Glendonbrook, was accidentally killed in a German coal mine whilst a POW. He died 30.7.1944, having been a POW for 3 years. He was in German hands in Greece, escaped, but was recaptured in Crete. His brother Private Henry Clements Perram also served and was discharged May 1945.		8/12/2008
Playford	Thomas Playford - father of George Playford of George Street (who is native to Singleton) settled near Bebeah in 1861 and died 29 April 1880		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20

	Pre-approved Names for Street and Road Naming
Name	Significance	Additional Notes	Adopted by Council
Poppenhagan	Christian Poppenhagan - after a short stay at Maitland after arriving in the colony, came to Singleton in 1859 and with a brother settled on Maitland Road opposite Newington, making his home in Singleton later. He was Council Clerk from 1870 to 1908 and secretary of the Northern Agricultural Association from 1868 to 1908.		8/12/2008
Read	Dr Richard Read - after four years practice at Newcastle came to Singleton in 1876 and held the appointment of Government Medical Officer. In 1881 he with a few partners opened Rix's Creek mine and was also a member of the syndicate which took over the Great Cobar Mines and worked them successfully for several years.		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Reitz	George Reitz with his second wife, Christina, both born in Germany, married 1853 in Germany, arrived in 1855 as a vine dresser. They lived at Scotts Flat. George died in 1865. Descendants remained in the area.		8/12/2008
Reynolds	WWII: died Belgium 3.9.1942, age 26 years. (Wireless Operator Air Gunner) Sergeant Robert (Bob) George Reynolds was shot down over Belgium 2 or 3 September 1942. Buried Belgium. Mother Mrs R S Reynolds, Redbournberry.		8/12/2008
Roach	WWII: Japanese POW died at sea 12.9.1944 Bombardier Allen Evans Roach, son of Mr & Mrs H H Roach, was missing after allies sank Japanese transport ship near the Philippines in September 1944. The ship was taking British Empire prisoners from Singapore. His brother, Leading Aircraftman Gordon Evans Roach, was discharged 1947. Their father, A H Roach, formerly stationmaster at Singleton, served a training section in Sydney before serving in India in RAAF.		8/12/2008
Roots	WWII: discharged from service 7.11.1944; died suddenly in Sydney 6.4.1945 aged 24 years. Stanley John Kenneth Roots (late AIF), son of Mr & Mrs Francis Roots of Archerfield Singleton, was discharged from the AIF after 3 years of service, two of those years served in New Guinea. Died suddenly in Sydney a few months after discharge.		8/12/2008
Rotton	Great Historical/Historical Significance	May have been used prior at	19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Rubie	John Brown Rubie arrived from Ireland in 1839. John was a bookkeeper for Thomas Burdekin in the 1840s; a school teacher at Wollombi, Stanhope and Wylie's Flat in 1850s; a carrier and farmer in 1860s plus librarian at the Mechanics Institute; a Singleton storekeeper 1870-1880s He advocated penny Saving Banks in Schools which was gazetted 1.1.1887.		8/12/2008
Schmierer	William Schmierer - settled at Goorangoola shortly after the passing of the 1861 Land Act and followed pastoral and farming pursuits there until his death 1914-1916. His son of the same name is still in the district, Frederick of Singleton is also a son.		8/12/2008
Shaddock	Family name - Ambrose Shaddock married Jane Hamilton (of an established family) in 1867 and lived in Singleton until his death in 1902. Ambrose was a farmer and involved in community affairs. He and Jane had 10 children. Richard Shaddock was born and died in Singleton in 1957. His family grew up on Baroona Estate. Norman Shaddock loved Singleton. He was a very well rounded athlete, including Australasian Pole Vault champion. He was secretary of the NAA for many years and, after working at Gould Bros, he commenced practice as a real estate agent just after WWII until his death in 1973. Shaddock Real Estate is an established business in John Street.	Shaddock Real Estate is a propriety business in town. This name may be ineligible for approval by the GNB under Section 3.2 of the guidelines for road naming.	19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Shepherd	Edmund Shepherd - settled on the Scotts' estate at Glendon, where he remained until his death. His proeprty has since been subdivided and is now in the hands of several settlers. Mr J E Shepherd of Clydesdale is a son.		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Stephenson	Richard Stephenson - was born at Glenridding in 1839 and twenty years later was on the roads as a carrier, after having spent a couple years on the gold fields at the Snowy River and Lambing Flat, now living in retirement at Redbournberry at the age of 87.		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Stowe	WWII: Japanese POW died 5.1.1944, Thailand Private Walter Francis Stowe, son of Mrs E R Stowe, died of illness at Moulmein, Thailand, while a Japanese POW. A veteran of WWI he was captured in WWII during the Malaya Campaign. (Born 21.5.1901.)		8/12/2008
Taggart	WWII: accidentally killed 7.12.1941 at Singleton while on Leave, 36 years of age. Driver Amos Belcher Taggart, son of Mr Harry Taggart of Broke, accidentally killed when struck by a train while walking from Singleton Station to his home in Cemetery Lane; died 7.12.1941; born 24.5.1905.		8/12/2008
Tisdell	Alex Tisdell - Alex was the Town Band Master for 35-40 years keeping the band together when it looked like it would fold in the 1960's. He devoted a considerable amount of his time to teaching young people entering the band to play instruments as well as making sure the band was available when needed for community events. He was also President of the local Bowling Club (Club Singleton) for several years.		8/12/2008

	Pre-approved Names for Street and Road Naming
Name	Significance	Additional Notes	Adopted by Council
Tudor	Henry Hugh Tudor born London 1819 transported on Royal Sovereign 1835 for 7 years for picking pockets. Obtained Ticket of Leave 1840. Married twice. Resided Jerrys Plains as a farmer and drover. Died 1872. Son, Henry Edward Tudor born 1951, resided Boggy Creek; son, Arthur McLeod Tudor born 1855, resided Rose Vale; son of 2nd marriage, Walter Charles, resided Warkworth. Many descendants remained in the area.		8/12/2008
Upjohn	Oliver Rouse Upjohn - arrived in Sydney in 1854 and shortly afterwards opened a business in Church Street as a watchmaker and jeweller he being from the well know firm of Upjohn and Bright of London. The Misses Upjohn of Singleton		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Warburton	William Warburton married Mary Ellen Kingston, daughter of an early Singleton miller; 1st son, William, worked for 12 yrs at James Moore & Co before leaving to work in Sydney. The 2nd son, Stanley Warburton became a solicitor after schooling at Singleton Grammar and being articled to Sir Albert Gould. The 3rd son, Kingston Ousley Warburton attended Hawkesbury Agricultural, became an auctioneer in Singleton; Kingston very involved in various organisations, particularly the NAA - president for a 12th term in 1950.		8/12/2008
Waring	George Waring - practised as a solicitor in Singleton for many years, and died here in 1878. Mr T G Waring and Miss Waring of Singleton are son and daughter respectively.		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Webber	WWII: Leading Aircraftman Henry J Webber Leading Aircraftman Henry John Webber was an engine driver. He married in Singleton in 1941. Plane crashed on a routine flight in the Irish Sea. Killed 5.12.1941		8/12/2008
Weiss	WWI: Pte Frederick and Gunner Earle V Weiss WWII: Harry Weiss POW and Pte Howard G Weiss Mr Walter Weiss, Schoolteacher and Miss Lorna Weiss, schoolteacher (i) Private Frederick Weiss killed 15.4.1917 (WWI), age 24 (ii) Gunner Earle Victor Weiss died 9.8.1918 (WWI) in France (iii) Private Harry Blanch Weiss POW of Japanese, Singapore, (WWII) died of illness 30.9.1943 (iv) Private Howard Glendon Weiss discharged (WWII) 21.3.46 (v) Father of above soldiers, Walter Weiss, Teacher-in-Charge Glendonbrook School 1894-1914 (vi) Sister of the above soldiers: Lorna Weiss taught at Hunter Street from 1920s, Headmistress Sth Singleton Infants School from late 1950s.		8/12/2008
Whiteman	William Whiteman - arrived in the colony in 1840 and started a business in John Street as a storekeeper. He was a member of the Hospital Committee 1861.		19/10/2020 Minute No 144/20
Whitfield	Percival Albert Whitfield appointed in 1903 as Officer in Charge Singleton with instructions to 'clean-up' cattle duffing; a foundation member of Singleton Bowling Club; appointed to Forbes 1914. Son, Cecil Rainham Whitfield, worked in law firm of Sir Albert Gould after leaving school, studied law, became Managing Clerk with Mr W J Cragg George St, being admitted as solicitor 1925, in partnership with Mr W J Cragg known as Wm J Cragg & Whitfield; partnership dissolved May 1953, a new partnership formed - C R Whitfield & Anderson. Whitfield died 1965.		8/12/2008