

MYSTERY CRIME THRILLER

Questions

- Did the book interest you from the start or was it slower to get going?
- How is the book structured? Were narrative devices like flashbacks or multiple voices used? How effective were they?
- What about the mystery - did you spot the clues or were you fooled by the red herrings? Were you engaged throughout the book?
- Were the motivations of the characters believable, or did their actions feel like a means to further the plot?
- Was there a romantic subplot? Did it enhance or detract from the story?
- How important is the location and time period to the story? Does the author give enough information to make it authentic?

- Is this a book that would appeal to anyone because it was skillfully written? Or would it only appeal to fans of the genre?
- Read aloud your favourite passage or quote